DAILY GAZETTE.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1861.

ter, and among all parties, we hear a united sentiment of loyalty to the country, a firm determination to support the government; and even in Virginia the loyal feeling is aroused. The nation is thoroughly patriotic, and wanted only the shock it has received to raise the national feeling to fever heat. The shock has come, and one loud shout goes up for the country and its flag. "Long live the Stars and Stripes," is in every heart! The rural people, who are always the best barometers of popular feeling, are alive to the issue, and firm for their coun-

This is the only question, and the people know it. There is no longer any question about slavery—about north or south, or any part shibboleth. It is simply and only a question whether the American government shall be sustained. This is the great question, and the people will rally round the government. The American people are profoundly patriotic, and, except among confirmed traitors, will defend their country and its flag .- Cincinnati Gazette.

A Noble Tennessee Journal.- The

will be found the occount of the correspondence between Gen. Beauragard and Mai. Anderson. In that correspondence the are at least deserving of a nation's com-mendation. In reply to Gen Beauregard's demand for a surrender of the fort he said Probably I will await orders from the President, and if you do not batter us to pieces, we will be starved out in a few days! That one sentence, so calm, dignified and gallant, is enough to immortalize its au-thor. Defending his country's honor with one foot apon the brink of eternity, the eyes of the world upon him, and a sud-den or a lingering death staring him in the face, his answer was that of a patriot and a soldier. If thus defending the flag of the Union, the fortress is really "battered to pie ces," wecannot but believe that a fearful retribution will meet his assailants. An anonymous correspondent writes us to know how long we intend to be a "Union shricker?" We can only say to him that we will battle for the Union to the end of its existence, if it ever dies, and "set up' with it after it is dead, if we should happen to outlive it.

A NOBLE LETTER FROM AN OFFICER IN Texas.—The following letter from an offi-cer of the army, now in Texas, to Senator-Harris, of Albany, New York, will be read with interest:

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 25, 1861. I enclose Gov. Houston's last, perhaps, expiring gasp, as one of the refreshing incidents of the day. The vile spirit abroad will crush him, but he will "die game."-The sacrifice of brave men and officers, in Texas, through the traitor Twiggs, is doubt-less well known. Upwards of two thousand men are now absolutely prisoners of war. Should the authorities at Washington take any step that can be construed in to a hostile intent, the officers and soldier in Texas will be made close prisoners of war. Not one of our men has joined the Texan forces, though guaranteed protection by orders from Davis. In mortification and sadness they saw the "Lone Star" and the flag of the Sonthern Confederacy flying from all the public buildings, and turned with still stronger affection and love to the "stars and stripes." Officers from the second grants will resign, but there is a wave rolling behind, upon the crest of which will be found men and soldiers who love their country, -its glories-its greatness and prosperity, and will stand by the constitution that made and which will still secure them. Let us have peace if we can. I depresate civil war. But why surrender all, when our country has been robbed and the backbone of the nation broken by conspirators in the cabinet? Fort Sumter! my beart aches when I think of my friend Anderson and those around him. I feel as though I was writing from a prison. The committee of public safety have forbid my joining my command. An express arrived from Austin the day after I came, cujoining upon the commander to keep me here. Perhaps I may be hung—or what is called here, hog'd—merely another name.

With much respect, very truly yours.

There is information at Washington that Beauregard has been ordered to Pensacola. Gen. Scott has raised the National flag at the War Department, which will hence forth be the head-quarters of the army.

A mob at Dayton, Ohio, threatened to riddle the Empire office, for publishing a accession article. The editor disowned it. Vallandighan is supposed to have written Ohio has been called upon for thirteen regiments, and the Governor promptly responded to the call. The Legislature has appropriated a million of dollars.

The estimate for arming the 19,920 Ohio troops, is $445,081.60.

John Cochrane of New York, has tendered a loan of $50,000 to Pennsylvania to equip the State troops.

There is a great excitement in all the cities and towns of Ohio, and namerous military companies are forming.

The proclamation of the Governor of Illinois is promptly responded to, and several companies have already tendered their ser-navy yard. "Occasional" writes to the Philadelphia Press from Washington:

A friend, one of those here who sympathize with secession, and yet cannot hide his love for the flag of the Union, standing at my side, said: "Mr. Lincoln is turning our city into a garrison. This is a pageant but may not these trappings be soon stained with fraternal blood?" I turned upon him and replied: "If your doctrines mean anything, they mean force, and if Mr. Lin-coln had not garrisoned Washington, Gov. Wise and the minute men of Virginia would have garrisoned Washington."

The senate bill for the supension of specie payments by our banks, was entirely different from that adopted. It would have been very detrimental to the interests of the state had it passed both branches of the legislature.

In the assembly the wholesenate bill was stricken out, and a substitute, offered by the thrilling intelligence that civil war has Mr. Graham, adopted in its stead, and is been inaugurated by the traitors, whose now a law. It provides for a suspension noxious breath pollutes the atmosphere of of specie payments by the banks until the first of December next, at which time the law passed at the present session, providing for central redemption takes effect. to the Board of Education :

The committee appointed by your honorable board to attend the examination at the grammar school of the city, would respecifully report that they have attended to the duties assigned them, and find that the school is under the supervision of Miss Mary Graham, principal, and Miss Launie Martin, assistant, conducted with admirable order and marked ability, as is evinced by the progress made by the pupils in the studies pursued in the school.

Your committee most highly commend the superior discipline and systematic course of government observable in all the exercises; and the rules of the school are enforced with that gentleness and firmness which at the same time command unqualifigd obedience and ensures the utmost respect, deference and love to those who en-

There are four divisions, in each of which are four classes, pursuing the studies of grammar, practical arithmetic, mental arithmetic, reading, geopraphy, spelling, etc., in all of which the students are unexpectedly proficient, when we take into consideration the long vacation which occurred during the best portion of the year for imparting instruction, and the short time which has elapsed since the school was resumed; and also the fact that a large class was promoted to the High School, at the commencement of the term.

Questions propounded to the scholars, with but a few exceptions, met with a ready | ted. response; nor was there any appearance of especial preparation for the occasion, as is sometimes the case; but judgment and good sound sense, such as will wear in practical life, dictated the answers.

Although not designing to particularize in noticing the different classes, your committee take especial pleasure in speaking of the classes in mental arithmetic as deserving of no common praise for the excellence they have attained in that branch of their studies.

The exercises in composition, deciamation and singing were good, very good for ments of men for immediate service is rethose who have had no more experience. The importance of these pursuits seems to be fully appreciated by both instructors and pupils.

The attendance at school has been prompt and uninterrupted, considering the distance at which many live from its location.

The Norfolk custom house has also been broken into, and a large quantity of guns

The revenue cutter of Norfolk has also been boarded and the guns seized. WASHINGTON, April 18.

Capt. Cullum, of the corps of engineers has been appointed aid-de-camp to Gen. Scott, with the rank of Lieut. Colonel, and is officially announced as such to the army He is to be obeyed and respected accord ingly.

Messrs. Carlisle and Dent, delegates of the Virginia state convention, arrived here this morning. They are of the strongest Union sentiments and their presence at this time occasions much surprise. They say there is no further use for them convention. Mr. Carlisle remarked that he eft Richmond a sad man. It is the intention of the war department to muster com panies enough in this district to yield force approaching 3000 men. The soldiers of the war of 1812 are about adopting a military organization and offering their ser vices for the defense of the seat of government. The Massachusetts and Rhode Island regiments and the 7th Regiment of New York, are expected here immediately. A special government messenger bas jus arrived from Pensacola and Fort Pickens The Markets.

New York, April 18. Flour market about 5c better with fair demand, sales 13.000 barrels, 5.00a5.15 su per state; 5,20a5,30 extra do; 5,05a5,15 super western; 5,25a5,45 common to me-dium extra western. Wheat market little more steady, sales 38,000 bushels, 1,20 2 Chicago spring in store; 1,28a1,30 Milwaukee club; 1,26 red state.

A CURIOUS CASE DECIDED .- Not long since, in Pennsylvania, a man named Huch more bought an old bureau of the adminis trators of Elisha Harris, deceased. He at terwards found a large sum of money in it Elias, the administrator, got possession o the money, and Huchmore sued them in the supreme court of the state for its recov ery. In deciding the case, Judge Wood ward said:

The machine itself and every essential part and constinent element were well sold. The consideration paid, though fifteen cents was in law a quid pro quo, and the sale un affected by fraud and misrepresentation passed to the purchaser an indefeasible right to the machine, and all the uses and purposes to which it could be applied .-But the contents of the machine are to be distinguished from the constituent parts They were unknown to the administrators were not inventoried, were not exposed to nuction, were not sold. Of course they were not bought. All that was sold was fairly bought, and may be held by the purchaser. The title to what was not sold remains unchanged. A sale of a coat doc not give title to the pocket book which may happen to be temporarily deposited in it or the sale of a chest of drawers a title to the deposits therein. In these cases, and in many others easily imagined, the con tents are not essential to the existence and not being within the contemplation or in tention of the contracting parties, do no pass by sale. The judgment of the cour below, awarding the money to the administrators, was therefore confirmed. Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.

WASHINGTON, April 16. The Governor of Kentucky refuses to fur nish his quota of volunteers. The Govern ment has not countermanded the order for troops destined for this city.

A gentleman high in the confidence of the Administration, was to-day appointed a Prussian Blue, secret Commissioner to Canada to explain the state of our National affairs. The Administration, it is reported, will garrison Virginia forts and arsenals, and defend all the Federal property in that State. Gov. Curtin, Secretary Cameron and General Scott had a long consultation today. The War Department is busy arranging for volunteers.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune. Washington, April 17.

The rumors here that the secession of Virginia is to be followed by immediate attack on the capitol and the seizure of Forts Monroe, Washington, McHenry and the Arsenal at Harper's Ferry, have kept the city in a ferment all day.

The defences of these points are being rapidly strengthened by regular and reliable forces. The utmost vigilance is observed to guard against surprise. The immense number of troops prompt ly offered to the president excites the great est enthusiasm among Union men.

The government will relax none of its vigor, but press by blockade and land for ces for an early settlement. The recencall for militia may soon be duplicated.— Ohio offers one hundred thousand menthirty thousand immediately. The reported intention to enforce martia law in the District of Columbia, scatters the secessionists in hot haste. Their desti-nation is mainly Richmond and Montgomery.

The last report from Virginia is that the convention has refused to secede by a ma ority of seven. It is said that she will preserve an armed neutrality. Bodies Wanted .- Mr. Vallandigham who puts himself on the bills as a western fire eater, in one of his performances in congress declared that the troops of the north would have to march over his and various other dead bodies, if they went to defend the government against seccession There is just now a demand for those dead bodies. The people of Dayton were looking for Mr. Vallandigham the other night but instead of paving the road with his dead body, he seems to have had a nice regard for his preservation. The confederates will be disappointed in the western fire eater. Mr. Vallandigham's resolution sceme to have been better, adapted to paving a way Canadian lines have been granted leave of proverbially paved with resolutions, than to paving the road to the south with his defunct body.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Upon one thing President Lincoln may rely. The people expect him to meet this awful emergency in the history of our government, with a courage and a promptitude to the crisis. Party divisions have ceased—party clamor is drowned by the roar of cannon aimed at the heart of the American Republic. We have none among us who are ready to see this glorious government prostrate in the dust at the feet of traitors. There is a patriotism in the hearts of our people that overrides and overrules all the suggestions of partisanship, and silences every breath of hostility to the government upon which we all repose. The public sentiment can only be shocked and disappointed by measures inadequate to the crisis. It demands a vigorous, comprehensive, and courageous policy. The issue has been forced upon us, and it must be met. Mr. Lincoln, in this emergency, must listen to no timid suggestions, to no halting or ap-prehensive advice. The supremacy of the government must be vindicated by its power, or it must be trampled under foot and extinguished forever. The President will he false to his oath, as well as to his nature. if he hesitates an instant as to the course

THE FEELING IN VIRGINIA .- The Wheel-

Attention, Light Guard!

I desire to see every member of this company at their armory this evening.-Business relating to the national crisis will be transacted. All others who wish to join our company are requested to meet with us. LET NONE BE ABSENT. H. A. PATTERSON, Captain.

Thursday, April 18, 1861.

Let the Enlistment Go On.

We trust the call for the Light Guard meeting to night will be heeded by every man who feels an interest in the immediate organization of a good military company in this place. We should not and need not be behind any other locality in doing our duty at this time, but unless we act at once and thoroughly we shall be considered and really be wanting in the true spirit which should actuate every liberty loving community in this hour of our country's peril .--Hundreds and thousands are organizing and tendering their services to the government in all parts of the state, and why should Janesville and Rock county be behind ?-Come forward, one and all, and let those who will enlist do so at once; and let others aid and encourage by their presence at this meeting.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT .- Our patriotic fellow citizen, Almon Calkins, esq., proposes to enlist a company of mounted men consisting of forty. He offers to every man who will enlist to serve during the war under his command or under the command of a captain to be elected by the company, a bounty of one village lot in his addition to | CARPETS the city of Janesville. This is a very generous offer, and is another evidence of the devotion of all classes of our community to the country in the present crisis.

We are pleased to learn that Capt. C. G. Gillet has tendered his services as captain of this company.

GOING TO THE WARS .- The enlistment at the rendezvous in this city goes on spiritedly to-day, some thirty-three having put down their names.

Joel Dwight has been appointed superin tendent of the Springfield (Mass.) armory, vice Col. Isaac H. White. There are now seventy thousand first class arms in the above named armory, and the workshops are very active, the number of arms manufactured each week being greatly increased."

The Pacific telegraph company has been formed by appointing J. H. Wade, of Cleveland, President, and Hiram Sibley, of Rochester, Vice President. Measures will be taken to ensure the completion of the line to California this year.

The first report of the seizure of Dominica by Spain is renewed, upon apparently reliable authority. But there is no evidence that Spain has any designs upon the Haytian portion of the island, and it is quite certain that England and France will not allow her to appropriate it.

A SENSIBLE PRAYER.—The Rev. Mr. Watters, in offering up a prayer at the opening of our state senate, on Tuesday morning last put the rebels in about the right place. He is reported to have said: "O Lord, we pray for all sinners, but we fear that the men who are lifting up their puny arms in rebellion against this great government, will be hung in this world, and damned in the world to come."

PREPAY DROP LETTERS .- We will again mention, for the benefit of those of our readers interested, that under the new postal law, passed February 27th, 1861, "drop or local letters must be prepaid by postage stamps."

ELECTION IN CRICAGO.—The majority for Mr. Ramsey, the republican candidate for mayor in Chicago, is 1,673.

SECESSIONISTS TURNING PIRATES.—The Charleston Mercury of Thursday contains an advertisement for a strong and fast steamer, suitable to be converted into a privateer.

BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD .- The Cincinnati Gazette learns from the officers of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, that they expect and already have indications of a very large business in transporting families with their furniture, agricultural implements, etc., from the southern part of Virginia, in the neighborhood of Harper's Ferry and other points on the line of the road, during the next few months. All of these families are emigrating north to Iowa, Illinois and Wisconsin.

The governor of Ohio has ordered special elections in Corwin and Sherman's districts; on the 25th of May.

The city of Paris has recently built 16,-000 houses, and rents are expected to fall.

TABLE AND SURBLUS,

TABLE above are First Class, factly popular, and prompt. In paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solveney and reliability and concrable dealing, they have but fow equals, and no caperiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bunds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reliever their outstanding risks, the above nomed companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
